About Me

Hello! I'm Aquib, a dedicated UI/UX Web Designer with Branding360. With over a year of experience, I'm passionate about creating engaging, intuitive digital experiences. My work blends user-centered design with business goals to deliver visually impactful and effective results.

Adobe XD | Figma | WordPress | Responsive Design | AI Tools | Website Design

I keep up-to-date with the latest design trends to ensure my work feels fresh and modern.
